

Please do not water down the New Jersey Do-not-call list regulations. Stand up for your citizens instead of complying to special interest business groups that want to disturb people who do not want to be disturbed.